

All patrons and visitors in the Canmore Library are expected to be:

- Respectful of others in the Library: including patrons, visitors, staff and volunteers
- Careful and considerate of Library property
- Lawful
- Responsible

We request that every patron:

- Dress appropriately: shoes and shirts must be worn.
- Attend to and supervise children in their care.
- Attend to personal belongings.
- Use Library furniture, equipment, washrooms, and property properly and for their intended purposes only.
- Leave the Library promptly at closing time and when requested to do so in emergency situations.

Examples of behaviours which are prohibited include:

- Visual, verbal or physical abuse of any kind towards another person in the Library;
- Threatening others;
- Destroying or damaging Library material or equipment;
- Theft;
- Intoxication or consuming liquor or illegal drugs on the Library premises;
- Fighting or arguing;
- Sleeping;
- Smoking;
- Bringing a pet into the Library, except during authorized programs— working service dogs are welcome;
- Exhibitionism or lewdness;
- Sexual advances or abuse;
- Using cell phones, pagers, head phones and other communication devices which disturbs others' use of the Library;
- Eating or drinking at the public Internet stations;

Copies of our full Patron Code of Conduct Policy are also available upon request.

Repeated violations will result in being asked to leave, suspension of Library privileges, charges for damages and/or criminal prosecution. Please be aware that the police will be called if behaviour becomes threatening in any way.
